

Breaking word curses and vows

During times when we have failed miserably in some way the enemy presses us to speak in line with his accusations whispered into our minds.

At those times and in those seasons of high stress we may have uttered word curses about ourselves in some area of life.

You may have failed at work and said things about yourself then...or failed as a husband or wife...and cursed yourself in those moments.

This is not a light thing. The spiritual realm takes full notice of what we say and it/they will enforce our words whether good or bad. The same goes in the case where other people, especially those in authority over us speak negative, barren, idle words over us.

We know or at least we should know that death and life are in the power of the tongue. If we speak death then death is what we shall reap...if life then life is what we receive.

Jesus said we shall give account of every idle word which we speak in the day of judgement .

If you say or speak curses over your self in some way you have just given demon spirits the right to enforce your words. The Devil comes to kill, steal and destroy your life and your calling in God. We need to ask God to show us and bring to our remembrance word curses we have spoken over ourselves so that we can repent.

If others have spoken death over you, people who have/had authority in your life the same results occur. These curses must be recognised, repented of and broken. IN the case where others spoke those words we need to forgive them and renounce their words claiming the blood of Jesus as our victory in all things.

It is scriptural.

Lev 5:4 Or when a person swears, speaking thoughtlessly with his lips, to do evil or to do good with regard to anything that the person in a sworn oath speaks thoughtlessly, but he is unaware of it, he will be guilty in any of these.

Do you see that speaking thoughtlessly is what Jesus referred to?

Mat 12:36 But I say to you that for every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment.

We have sinned against ourselves and the Lord Jesus by downgrading ourselves. When you speak evil of yourself you speak evil of the LORD JESUS. When you curse yourself—you curse the LORD JESUS.

“...when he realizes it, then he shall be guilty in any of these matters.

*Lev 5:5 ‘And it shall be, when he is guilty in any of these matters, that he shall confess that he has sinned in that thing;

*Lev 5:6 and he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD for his sin which he has committed, a female from the flock, a lamb or a kid of the goats as a sin offering. So the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin.

Interestingly you only become guilty when you realise you have uttered these stupid hurtful things. The Scripture then gives us a way out of our guilt—confession and faith in the blood of Jesus our sacrifice for sin.

But if you go on speaking hurtful things over yourself instead of seeing it as sin...then your GUILT REMAINS and the Accuser/Prosecutor/The Serpent shall have his way with you.

You remain guilty in the spiritual court of heaven. The Accuser then has the right to pursue us with his arrest warrants which demons serve upon us. Those demons will enforce the untrue hurtful things we have spoken until we repent of those words and confess our sin in uttering those lies about our self. None of those idle words need to be left unconfessed. We can be cleansed if we repent and confess and receive/speak the truth about ourselves.

The truth is we are not %^&%$##&(&^% !

Instead we are the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus!

Repent of any evil words you have spoken over yourself. Forgive yourself, forgive others who spoke them as well. Ask God to break the curse and command the Accuser he must leave your mind now!

Speaking evil over yourself —the Hebrew word for evil in Lev 5:4 is ra^a' raw-ah' – A primitive root; properly to spoil (literally by breaking to pieces); figuratively to make (or be) good for nothing,

The Spoiler is the Accuser and the Accuser will tell you that you are GOOD FOR NOTHING!! You may have said this about yourself. These are words straight out of the mouth of the Devil.

Repent of agreeing with him, turn from them and confess it as sin. Then put on the Lord Jesus Christ so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord.
